

Accepting Nominations for Women's Achievement Awards

SALT LAKE CITY— In celebration of Women's History Month, the Utah Commission for Women & Families will present the Utah Women's Achievement Award to Utah women, past and present, who have made significant contributions in all walks of life.

The Commission is now accepting nominations for the 2006 Women's Achievement Awards. The Commission is searching for Utah women who have made significant contributions to the lives of other women in our state. These women may have overcome adversity, worked professionally to improve the quality of life for other women, given community service, or even contributed to the positive development of their own families.

Nominations will be accepted until February 15, 2006. This year's awards will be presented by First Lady Mary Kaye Huntsman at the Governor's Mansion on Thursday, March 16th, 2006, at 10:00 a.m.

You can find out more about the award, and download a nomination form, by visiting www.families.utah.gov/awards, or by calling the Utah Commission on Women & Families at (801) 526-9322.
